

THE DAILY BRIEFING

■ CONTRACT BOOST Shares in a leading graphene maker jumped after it announced a two-year contract with an oil company in Myanmar.

Graphene NanoChem, which is listed on the junior stock market, makes the material, which is just one atom thick, for use in improving drills for the oil and gas sectors. Shares rose 3.9pc, or 0.5p, to 13.5p.